

+++ postponement – Conference They do indeed compose and conduct! +++

We have been following the news about the pandemic course of SARS-CoV-2 (corona virus) and today, with a heavy heart, we concluded to postpone the conference, They do indeed compose and conduct! (previously scheduled: 20-22 March 2020) to a later date.

After months of extensive preparation, this was not an easy decision for us to make. However, recent developments and concerns from attendees and participants have led the organizational team to come to this difficult conclusion. Through this postponement, we hope to aid in slowing the spread of the virus by limiting international travel. We also wish to maintain an inclusive environment for the members of our community who may be in at-risk health groups, so that they may attend the conference without concerns for their safety.

The only exception to the postponement is the composition workshop with Laura Konjetzky, which will take place as planned on 20. 3. for a small group of five students. We are thrilled by the continued enthusiasm of the participants.

If possible, the conference will be rescheduled for autumn 2020 or spring 2021. Information will be provided as soon as it is available.

We apologize for the inconvenience. We hope that you will be available at the new date and look forward to welcoming you in Munich soon.

Thank you very much for your understanding! Stay healthy!

Sincerely yours,

Anne Holler-Kuthe
